

Trail	Distance (round-trip)	Time, Elevation	Description
Easy
Balanced Rock	0.3 mi (0.5 km)	20 minutes	Loop trail around the base of picturesque rock formation
Windows	1 mi (1.6 km)	45 minutes	Climb yields views of three massive arches, with slightly longer and uneven return option
Double Arch	0.5 mi (0.8 km)	20 minutes	Flat, sandy trail leads to base of the tallest arch in the park
Delicate Arch Viewpoints	100 yards (91 m) or 0.5 mi (0.8 km)	10 minutes or 30 minutes	Wheelchair-accessible view of arch at a distance. Climb to second viewpoint is moderately strenuous and affords slightly better view of arch.
Sand Dune Arch	0.3 mi (0.5 km)	20 minutes	Cross deep sand to secluded arch among fins of rock. Do not climb or jump off arch.
Broken Arch Loop	2 mi (3.2 km)	60 minutes	From Sand Dune or campground, cross meadows & slickrock to two more arches.
Skyline Arch	0.4 mi (0.6 km)	15 minutes	Short hike on flat trail to arch that doubled in size overnight in 1940.
Landscape Arch	1.6 mi (2.6 km)	50 minutes	Flat, popular trail to longest arch in park. Side trips to Tunnel and Pine Tree arches.
Courthouse Wash Rock Art	1 mi (1.6 km)	40 minutes	From Highway 191 near Colorado River, brief climb up to prehistoric rock art panel
Moderate
Park Avenue	2 mi (3.2 km)	1.5 hours, 320 ft / 98m	Steep descent into spectacular canyon. With a second driver, can hike just one way and be picked up at other end.
Strenuous
Tower Arch	3.4 mi (5.5 km)	2.5 hours	From unpaved road, climb steeply and then cross through fins and sand dunes to arch.
Delicate Arch	3 mi (4.8 km)	2.5 hours 480 ft / 146m	Exposed climb with no shade and 200-yard (183-m) rock ledge at end. Follow cairns. Not recommended in peak summer heat.
Double O Arch	4.2 mi (6.8 km)	2.5 hours	Narrow ledges, exposure, rocky climbing. Spur trails to Partition and Navajo arches.
Devils Garden (full loop)	7.2 mi (11.6 km)	4 hours	Narrow ledges, exposure, steep climbing, and few trail markers on Primitive section. Not recommended when wet or snowy.
Fiery Furnace	N/A (no marked trail)		No marked trails, signs, or maps. Join a ranger-led tour or obtain a permit for a fee. Requires agility and careful navigation.

Courtesy of the National Park Service

The Tiverton Foundation